Speaker Welch,

It has been the honor of my life to serve the people of Illinois as the State Representative for IL-4th House District and as an Assistant Majority Leader under your leadership. The last four years we have done incredible work for our communities and I am grateful to have been able to partner with you to deliver on a bold legislative agenda. From expanding resources for affordable housing, to bringing democracy to Chicago Public Schools, to creating healthcare access for our communities regardless of their immigration status, I am proud of all that we have accomplished.

I look forward to a continued partnership with you as I transition into my new role as U.S. Representative for IL-03 District. As I prepare to assume this role, I am writing to offer my resignation from the IL House of Representatives effective end of day on December 14, 2022.

I leave this chamber with full confidence and knowledge that our state and the 4th House District are in good hands under your continued leadership and the leadership of my successor. Thank you for the opportunity to serve by your side.

Dear Clerk Hollman:

I hereby resign as State Representative for the 87th District of the 102nd General Assembly effective at 11:59pm on Saturday, December 31, 2022.

As the son of a family which has lived in Illinois all our state's 204 years, it has been a privilege of the highest order to serve as a member of the Illinois House of Representatives.

I would like to wholeheartedly thank my personal office staff, especially Rachel Schmock, Courtney Ausmus, and Candice McCarty. Every staff member who works for this institution, from doorkeepers to maintenance personnel to clerks to staff of both caucuses, has ensured that I have been able to carry out my duties and I will forever be indebted to all of them.

I thank my seatmates David Leitch, Randy Frese, Grant Wehrli, Mike Murphy, and Sandy Hamilton for their friendship, counsel, and support. Republican Leader Jim Durkin will forever have my deep gratitude for trusting me and for giving me the great opportunity to succeed in the House. I am honored to have served with so many tremendous colleagues over these four terms and I am thankful they have all stepped forward to serve the people of Illinois. I am grateful to the people of the 87th District for having the confidence in me to be their voice at the Capitol.

Finally, for everything, I thank my wife Wendy.

Offered by Representative Flowers:

WHEREAS, Cardiovascular disease (CVD) is the leading cause of death in the United States, and African Americans have the highest overall mortality rate from coronary heart disease (CHD) of any ethnic group in the United States, particularly in out-of-hospital deaths and at especially younger ages; and

WHEREAS, According to the U.S. Census Bureau, approximately 21 million patients have been diagnosed with atherosclerotic cardiovascular disease (ASCVD) in the United States and are at risk of experiencing a cardiovascular event; and

WHEREAS, The Mayo Clinic states that ASCVD is linked to the build-up of cholesterol in the arteries and the risk of associated events can be modified by lowering low-density lipoprotein cholesterol (LDL-C); and

WHEREAS, In 2016, nearly 70 million adults in the United States had higher than recommended LDL-C levels; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 43.1 million people in the United States are currently being treated with lipid-lowering therapies to manage cardiovascular risk; and

WHEREAS, Only 20% of people with ASCVD who are taking statins, one of the leading lipid-lowering therapies, actually achieve healthy levels of LDL-C; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association has indicated the total direct and indirect cost of ASCVD in the U.S. was $555 billion in 2016 with it being projected to climb to $1.1 trillion by 2035; and

WHEREAS, In Illinois, 776,900 adults have been told by a health professional that they had angina, a stroke, a heart attack, or coronary heart disease, which are some of the manifestations of ASCVD; 363,500 adults have reported experiencing a heart attack in their lifetime and 293,300 adults have reported experiencing a stroke in their lifetime; 13,484 people had ASCVD as an underlying cause of death; and

WHEREAS, Illinois spends an estimated $4.59 billion dollars on direct medical expenses for ASCVD care each year; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge state agencies to expand comprehensive cardiovascular screening programs to allow for earlier identification of patients at risk of cardiovascular events; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge state agencies to explore ways to collaborate with federal and national agencies and organizations to establish or expand comprehensive cardiovascular screening programs; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge an update of the State's cardiovascular plan to accelerate quality improvements in the care rendered to these patients such that screening, treatment, monitoring, and improved health outcomes are achieved; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we support the creation of policies to decrease the rising number of deaths of Americans as a result of ASCVD; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies be delivered to the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Director of the Department of Public Health, the Director of the Department of Healthcare and Family Services, and the Secretary of the Department of Human Services.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 1034

Offered by Representative Mayfield:

WHEREAS, Literacy is not only critical for individuals' ability to earn income, secure housing, participate in their healthcare, support their children's education, pursue happiness, and navigate the world but also collectively foundational to our community and democracy; and

WHEREAS, The World Literacy Foundation found that low literacy is a major contributor to inequality and increases the likelihood of poor physical and mental health, workplace accidents, misuse of medication, participation in crime, and welfare dependency, all of which have substantial additional social and economic costs; and

WHEREAS, Fifty percent of Illinois' third graders met, exceeded, or approached learning standards in English language arts according to the Illinois Assessment of Readiness with the other half of students not meeting or partially meeting standards; this represents a ten percentage point swing from the 2019 pre-pandemic rates when 60 percent of students met, exceeded, or approached learning standards; and

WHEREAS, Thirty-three percent of Illinois' fourth graders achieved proficient or advanced reading scores on the 2022 National Assessment of Educational Progress with another 29 percent meeting basic reading proficiency and the remaining 38 percent scoring below basic reading proficiency; and

WHEREAS, Research from the Annie E. Casey Institute found that students who are not proficient readers in third grade are four times more likely not to finish high school; if those students are from low-income families, they are more than six times more likely not to finish high school; and

WHEREAS, Research consistently finds that a diverse, well-trained, and expanding pool of teachers, in conjunction with curricula responsive to the strengths and needs of diverse student populations, improves educational outcomes for all students; and

WHEREAS, An appropriate curriculum blends the learning needs of students with their developmental needs and increases in complexity with every new stage of childhood; and

WHEREAS, Oral language development is a prerequisite for reading and writing that is nurtured from birth through talking, reading, story-telling, singing, nursery rhymes, and other language exposure and, as younger children develop, through intentional dialogue with rich vocabulary; home visiting programs, access to books, high-quality childcare and preschool, and lived experiences strengthen students' opportunity to build oracy skills, vocabulary, and background knowledge, leading to higher-level cognitive thinking; and

WHEREAS, Reading builds new neural pathways in the brain as people, usually children, learn to connect the sounds in language to letters on a page to the meaning of the text; however, there is no one-size-fits-all approach to literacy, as learners will require different dosages within different areas of literacy instruction to meet their individual needs; and

WHEREAS, Reading and writing have a reciprocal relationship as each strengthens the other, and students benefit when their instruction is closely intertwined; and

WHEREAS, English learners benefit from a comprehensive literacy approach that recognizes the value of multilingualism by enveloping all areas of literacy instruction with a deep focus on oral language development and encouraging students to make connections between English and their home language; and

WHEREAS, Teachers deserve the tools to be knowledgeable about the cultural practices and language system of the children they serve, including those children who speak language variations of English, such as African-American English (AAE); AAE has a linguistic structure that is a systematic and rule-governed variation of General American English (GAE); and

WHEREAS, Research shows that direct, systematic, cumulative, and explicit reading instruction that is focused on the foundational reading skills of phonemic awareness, phonics or decoding, spelling or encoding, vocabulary development that includes morphology, oral language development, reading fluency, and reading comprehension that includes syntax and building background or content knowledge, is highly effective in teaching young children to read; and

WHEREAS, High literacy achievement across all demographic groups is an essential indicator of educational equity within the State of Illinois; strengthening early literacy instruction and supports for students in Illinois will pay dividends in the future by empowering students, providing the skills they will need to graduate, find fulfilling careers, and be productive members of their communities and of our democracy; and

WHEREAS, Ensuring that every child has access to high-quality, research-aligned, developmentally-appropriate reading instruction implemented using a comprehensive approach is a foundational component of Illinois' public education system and a responsibility shared among federal, state, and local education agencies; and

WHEREAS, The Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) held a literacy summit on October 25, 2022 to bring education professionals and advocates across Illinois together to share ideas and best practices to support literacy development for Illinois' children while also recognizing the complexity of literacy development and potential pitfalls of adopting incomplete or simplistic policy solutions; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge the Illinois State Board of Education to share findings from the literacy summit held on October 25, 2022 as progress towards promoting research-aligned, developmentally-appropriate literacy practices across grades and subject areas, developing a comprehensive literacy plan through continued collaboration with other relevant agencies and stakeholders, supporting alignment of early childhood programs, curriculum, educator training, professional development, and student supports to Illinois' standards, and ensuring that closing literacy opportunity gaps among demographic groups be prioritized; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to ISBE with our appreciation for the agency's efforts to advance literacy and with our support for the continuation of such efforts.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 1035

Offered by Representative Durkin:

WHEREAS, The game of cricket is a sportsmanship game played around the world in the open air by tens of millions of people, especially young people; and

WHEREAS, Games similar to cricket were played by early English settlers in America; these games were driven into obscurity by the new American sport of baseball, but many words from cricket are used by baseball players and fans to this day, such as bat, fielder, and inning; and

WHEREAS, Cricket never died out in the countries that make up the United Kingdom; many of the countries that play top-level cricket to this day, including Australia, Bangladesh, India, and Pakistan, are nations that share a political heritage that includes the game of cricket; and

WHEREAS, In the nations that play cricket, the game is acclaimed as a way to demonstrate skill in both athleticism and mental poise; calmness and patience are as essential to the game of cricket as the ability to swing a straight bat; and

WHEREAS, The rules of cricket enable the game to be played and enjoyed by both men and women, and women's cricket is played all over the world; and

WHEREAS, The game of cricket is overwhelmingly associated with fair play and good sportsmanship; and

WHEREAS, Many Illinois residents, especially younger Illinois residents, were born or have family origins in the countries, nations, and cultures where cricket is played as a principal sport; they would like to play this sport in Illinois and get official recognition as they do so; and

WHEREAS, Cricket, typically played at the club level, is a growing sport in American colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, The time has come when Illinois should add cricket to the list of sports that Illinois high school-age students can officially play and enjoy; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we urge the Illinois High School Association (IHSA) to take steps towards officially recognizing the game of cricket in Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this recognition process should move towards the organization of Illinois inter-school cricket play for those secondary schools that wish to field a team; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the organization of Illinois cricket play should maximize the ability of Illinois-origin cricketers to continue their play at the college-university level; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we recognize and congratulate the pioneer Illinois cricket players who have begun to play this game on their own prior to the official games that will be played by their younger brothers and sisters; we urge the IHSA to recognize the pioneering heritage of Illinois cricket games played prior to official recognition and regularization of play; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be presented to Katy Hasson, President of the Illinois High School Association, and to Craig Anderson, Executive Director of the IHSA.
